1. The entries in the above table, which are in alphabetical order in each article, apply exclusively to the persons entered therein, and while regulating their relative precedence with each other do not give them any precedence over members of the non-official community resident in India, who shall take their place according to usage.

2. Officers in the above table will take precedence in order of the numbers of the entries. Those included in one number will take precedence inter se according to the date of entry into that number with the exception of officers of the Defence Services, who rank inter se in accordance with their seniority, and of the Chief Justice of Bengal, who will rank before all other persons included in Article 14 irrespective of the date of their entry into that Article.

3. When an officer holds more than one position in the table, he will be entitled to the highest position accorded to him.

4. Officers who are temporarily officiating in any number in the table, will rank in that number below permanent incumbents.

5. All officers not mentioned in the above table, whose rank is regulated by comparison with rank in the army, to have the same rank with reference to civil servants as is enjoyed by military officers of equal grades.

6. All other persons who may not be mentioned in this table to take rank according to general usage, which is to be explained and determined by the Governor-General in his discretion in case any question shall arise*. When the position of any such person is so determined and notified, it shall be entered in the table in italics, provided he holds an appointment in India.

7. The following will take courtesy rank as shown :—

(3) Officers holding commissions in the Army in India Reserve of Officers rank with officers of the regular army in accordance with the dates of their commission or promotion to the different ranks.

(4) Officers of the Auxiliary Forces in India rank with, but after, officers of the regular army of their corresponding rank.

(5) In Indian waters, and in the territories bounded thereby for ceremonial purposes only, †Royal Indian Navy officers rank with, but immediately after, officers of the Royal Navy, the Army and the Royal Air Force of the same or corresponding rank and seniority. For this purpose the term "Indian waters" shall be understood to extend from the north-west entrance of the Straits of Malacca to Cape Comorin, including Ceylon, and from Cape Comorin to Aden, including the Maladive and Laccadive Islands and the Persian Gulf. For other than ceremonial purposes and outside the limits mentioned above, officers of the †Royal Indian Navy rank as junior to all officers of the Royal Navy, the Army and the Royal Air Force of the same or corresponding ranks irrespective of seniority.

† "Royal Indian Marine" is now styled the "Royal Indian Navy."

C. W. Gwynne,
Joint Secretary to the Government of India.
